

⁹“This, then, is how you should pray:
“ ‘Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be Your name,
¹⁰ Your kingdom come,
Your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
¹¹Give us today our daily bread.

¹²Forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.

¹³And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.'

¹⁴For if you forgive men when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

¹⁵But if you do not forgive men their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.

¹⁴So I kneel humbly in awe before the Father of our Lord Jesus, the Messiah, ¹⁵the perfect Father of every father and child in heaven and on the earth. ¹⁶And I pray that He would unveil within you the unlimited riches of His glory and favor until supernatural strength floods your innermost being with His divine might and explosive power.

¹⁷Then, by constantly using your faith, the life of Christ will be released deep inside you, and the resting place of His love will become the very source and root of your life.

¹⁸Then you will be empowered to discover what every holy one experiences—the great magnitude of the astonishing love of Christ in all its dimensions. How deeply intimate and far-reaching is His love! How enduring and inclusive it is! Endless love beyond measurement that transcends our understanding—this extravagant love pours into you until you are filled to overflowing with the fullness of God!

²⁰Never doubt God's mighty power to work in you and accomplish all this. He will achieve infinitely more than your greatest request, your most unbelievable dream, and exceed your wildest imagination! He will outdo them all, for His miraculous power constantly energizes you.

²¹Now we offer up to God all the glorious praise that rises from every church in every generation through Jesus Christ—and all that will yet be manifest through time and eternity.
Amen!

²²The LORD said to Moses, ²³“Tell Aaron and his sons, ‘This is how you are to bless the Israelites. Say to them:

²⁴“ ‘ “The LORD bless you
and keep you;
²⁵the LORD make His face shine upon you
and be gracious to you;
²⁶the LORD turn His face towards you
and give you peace.” ’
²⁷“So they will put my name on the Israelites,
and I will bless them.”

¹I lift up my eyes to the hills—
where does my help come from?
²My help comes from the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

³He will not let your foot slip—
He who watches over you will not slumber;
⁴indeed, He who watches over Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.

⁵The LORD watches over you—
the LORD is your shade at your right hand; ⁶the sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.

⁷The LORD will keep you from all harm—
He will watch over your life;
⁸the LORD will watch over your coming and going
both now and for evermore.

¹The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me,
because the LORD has anointed me
to preach good news to the poor.
He has sent me to bind up the broken-
hearted,
to proclaim freedom for the captives
and release from darkness for the prisoners,

The background of the image shows ancient ruins, likely the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. Several tall, weathered stone columns stand amidst a field of lower stone walls and rubble. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds, and the overall lighting suggests a bright but slightly hazy day. The text is overlaid on a semi-transparent dark rectangle in the center of the image.

²to proclaim the year of the LORD's favour
and the day of vengeance of our God,
to comfort all who mourn,
³and provide for those who grieve in Zion—
to bestow on them a crown of beauty
instead of ashes,

instead of mourning,
and a garment of praise
instead of a spirit of despair.
They will be called oaks of righteousness,
a planting of the LORD
for the display of His splendour.

⁴They will rebuild the ancient ruins
and restore the places long devastated;
they will renew the ruined cities
that have been devastated for generations.

⁵Aliens will shepherd your flocks;
foreigners will work your fields and vineyards.

⁶And you will be called priests of the LORD,
you will be named ministers of our God. You will feed on the wealth of nations,
and in their riches you will boast.

In the center, there are several tall, weathered stone columns standing amidst a field of lower stone walls and rubble. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds, and the overall lighting suggests a bright, sunny day. The ruins are constructed from large, rectangular stone blocks, some of which are stacked in neat rows while others are scattered in disarray.

⁷Instead of their shame
my people will receive a double portion,
and instead of disgrace
they will rejoice in their inheritance;
and so they will inherit
a double portion in their land,
and everlasting joy will be theirs.

¹³He said about Joseph:
May his land be blessed by the Lord
with the dew of heaven's bounty
and the watery depths that lie beneath; ¹⁴with the bountiful harvest from the sun
and the abundant yield of the seasons;

¹⁵with the best products
of the ancient mountains
and the bounty of the eternal hills;
¹⁶with the choice gifts of the land
and everything in it;
and with the favor of Him
who appeared in the burning bush.

⁷“Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap.”

Galatians 6:7

The background of the image shows two people silhouetted against a bright, orange-hued sunset sky. They appear to be working in a field, possibly harvesting or planting, with one person standing and reaching out towards the other who is bent over. The overall mood is one of perseverance and labor.

⁹“So let’s not allow ourselves to get fatigued doing good. At the right time we will harvest a good crop if we don’t give up, or quit. ¹⁰Right now, therefore, every time we get the chance, let us work for the benefit of all, starting with the people closest to us in the community of faith.”

Galatians 6:9-10

¹⁴For this reason I kneel before the Father, ¹⁵from whom His whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name. ¹⁶I pray that out of His glorious riches He may strengthen you with power through His Spirit in your inner being, ¹⁷so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith.

And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love,¹⁸ may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ,¹⁹ and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fulness of God.

²⁰Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us, ²¹to Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

⁹And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, ¹⁰so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, ¹¹filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

²O LORD, be gracious to us;
we long for you.
Be our strength every morning,
our salvation in time of distress.
³At the thunder of your voice, the peoples
flee;
when you rise up, the nations scatter.

Isaiah 33:2-6

⁴Your plunder, O nations, is harvested as by young locusts;
like a swarm of locusts men pounce on it.
⁵The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high;
He will fill Zion with justice and righteousness.

⁶He will be the sure foundation for your times,
a rich store of salvation
and wisdom and knowledge;
the fear of the LORD
is the key to this treasure.

Isaiah 33:2-6
