(MATTHEW 28:16-20, ESV)

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them.

And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them,

“All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

(MARK 16:15-20, ESV)

And he said to them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover.”

So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.

(JOHN 2:1-12, ESV)

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him,

“They have no wine.” And Jesus said to her, “Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come.” His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.” Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, “Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast.” So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now.” This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him. After this he went down to Capernaum, with his mother and his brothers and his disciples, and they stayed there for a few days.

STORY RECAP

When Jesus was about 30 years old, He and His disciples were invited to a wedding in Cana. It must have been a massive wedding party, because pretty soon, the wine ran out! Jesus' mother came to Him and said, "They have no wine." Then she told the servants to do whatever Jesus said! Jesus spotted six big stone water jars and said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water."

Then Jesus told them to take some of the water out of the jar and take it to the master of the feast. The servants did as they were told. As he tasted it, he was surprised and said to the bridegroom, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now. The master of the feast did not know where the wine had come from, and the servants did not tell him. But the disciples saw the miracle that Jesus performed and they believed in Him!

HOW THIS APPLIES

This was the very first miracle that Jesus ever did during His time on earth.

It was the first time that the disciples got to see that He had so much authority on earth – even the water did what Jesus wanted and turned into wine!

When we get to know God for who He is and start to see and understand that Jesus has authority in heaven and on earth, our faith grows and we believe Him more! When Jesus comes into our lives, things start to change because we see that God is good and that He loves and cares for us. Also, the more we get to know Jesus, the easier it is to trust Him and obey Him because we can see His work in our lives.

After Jesus died on the cross and rose from the dead, He had truly conquered everything! Not even sin and death could hold Him back - He now has authority over sin and death! Jesus has authority over all things and when we go on a mission with Jesus, we get to partner with Him!
