SCRIPTURES

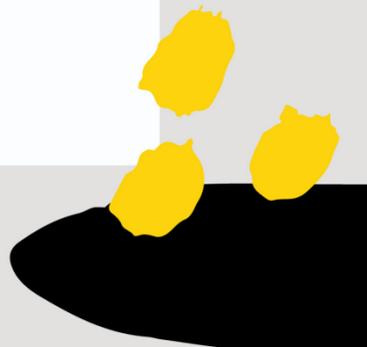

(JOHN 3:16, NIV)

“For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

(MATTHEW 14:25-27, NIV)

“Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. “It’s a ghost,” they said, and cried out in fear. But Jesus immediately said to them: “Take courage! It is I. Don’t be afraid.””

(LUKE 7:6-10 NIV)

“So Jesus went with them. He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to him: “Lord, don’t trouble yourself, for I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed.” When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, “I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel.” Then the men who had been sent returned to the house and found the servant well.”

(JOHN 11:25-26, 41-44 NIV)

“Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?” So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up and said, “Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe that you sent me.” When he had said this, Jesus called in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet wrapped with strips of linen, and a cloth around his face. Jesus said to them, “Take off the grave clothes and let him go.””

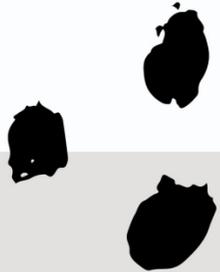

(JOHN 9:6-11 NIV)

“After saying this, he spit on the ground, made some mud with the saliva, and put it on the man’s eyes.

“Go,” he told him, “wash in the Pool of Siloam” (this word means “Sent”). So the man went and washed, and came home seeing. His neighbors and those who had formerly seen him begging asked,

“Isn’t this the same man who used to sit and beg?” Some claimed that he was. Others said, “No, he only looks like him.” But he himself insisted, “I am the man.” “How then were your eyes opened?” they asked. He replied, “The man they call Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes. He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed, and then I could see.””

STORY RE-CAP

God's people knew that God was sending them someone to save them. They were in great danger because of sin. Sin had separated them from God and there was no way that they could make up for it on their own. They needed a hero! Jesus was that hero! He came to earth and he lived a perfect life – that's an amazing superpower right there! Jesus is the only real life person who made a way to save the whole world!

03

HOW THIS APPLIES

If you're not perfect, it means that there is sin in your life. There is sin in my life too. The punishment for that sin is death and being separated from God forever. That's the punishment that we all deserve. But do you know who stepped in to save the day? Jesus took the punishment that we deserved so that we could be saved!

That's a true hero! Now, we get to put our trust in him! When we believe that Jesus died on the cross to take our punishment, we can be saved too! We can be right with God again! Jesus has so many powers! He can do more than we could ever think or imagine!

Jesus can walk on water! Jesus can heal the sick! Jesus is stronger than death! He saved the world!

The more I get to know Jesus, the more I learn that he is the ultimate superhero! He's the only hero I need in my life!
